And What Have You

By BOB CRAIG

We extend our congratulations to Jim Bonds and Milton Davis for their fine efforts at the Regional Track Meet that earned them the right to represent Hamlin at the State Meet next weekend. Jim took second in the 330-yard intermediate hurdles and Milton captured first in the discus.

We were sorry that none of the other entries at Regional were able to go on to the state meet but we were still quite proud that they were able to represent us at Regional.

Well, come Monday and we will get our first taste of Daylight Saving Time since World War II. Other than the possibility of missing an hour's sleep the first night, we do not think that the new time will really create very many problems.

That is, it won't if everybody remembers to change their clocks before they go to bed Sunday. Otherwise it could be a bit confusing — with some showing up for work at eight and others at nine.

And if you stay up Sunday night until the TV goes off the air and then get up at the new time Monday you may find yourself a little tired before you get through the day.

A few people may try to change their hours so that they will be operating the same time as always in relation to the sun, but the schools and most businesses that we talked to will just change their clocks and operate the same hours as always.

So, just remember to change your clocks Sunday night and try to forget about the new time and maybe things will just go on as usual.

We have been informed that another consolidation election has been called that would combine the McCaulley and Hamlin School Districts if approved by the voters in both districts.

The voters in McCaulley just recently turned down a similar proposal to consolidate with Roby and two years ago they turned down a proposal to join the Hamlin District.

We have no way of knowing how this current effort will fare. Our only hope is that the decision will be made on the merits of the case and not based on the rumors and half-truths that have characterized the past two elections.

We, as outsiders, have no way of knowing whether or not the McCaulley School should be disbanded — this is a decision for the McCaulley voters to decide. We do feel however, that if they feel that it is time to discontinue their school system that they will be welcomed to come in with Hamlin. McCaulley and Hamlin have always been good neighbors and regardless of the outcome of this election that they will continue to be friends and neighbors.

We can easily understand how hard a decision this is for the people of McCaulley to make. Nobody wants to close down their school because this is the very heart of a community. But yet the future of our youth must be considered. And this should be the only basis for this decision.

If the people of McCaulley can continue to operate a good school that meets the requirements of the state, the needs of their students, and at a price that they can afford to pay — then we say they should turn down this consolidation.

But, if they feel that it is time to make a change because they cannot continue to operate a good school, then we would hope that they feel that the people of the two school districts can join together as friends and neighbors and operate a school that we can all be proud of.

While the state will pay the combined district a large sum of money for ten years this fact should not influence the decision to close down the McCaulley School but should be only used as a factor in deciding what district McCaulley should merge with when they are ready to merge.

Since this is an issue that is packed with emotion it is hard to expect all of the voters to take a good honest look at the situation based on true facts. But we do hope that every eligible voter in both districts will express themselves at the voting box when the time comes.

Polio Vaccine Supply Runs Short Sunday

The oral polio vaccine was dispensed to some 650 persons and about 100 were turned away after the supply was exhausted. The 400 doses purchased for the drive supplemented by 180 doses from Anson and the supplies from the school and local hospital were still not sufficient for the good turnout.

The drive was sponsored by the Hamlin Parent-Teachers Association.

Most Local Merchants, Schools To Observe DST

In a survey conducted by the Hamlin Herald Tuesday afternoon it was revealed that most of the businesses in Hamlin will make no changes in their opening and closing hours Monday when Daylight Savings Time goes into effect across most of the nation.

The survey revealed that most businessmen will just move up their clocks to the new time Sunday night and will continue to keep the same store hours as in the past. This means that most of the downtown stores will continue to open at 8 a.m. and close at their customary times of 5:30 or 6.

Supt. C. F. Cook announced that the School Board voted at their last meeting for the schools to continue with their regular times with most students going at 8:30 and getting out at 4.

Most of the people contacted in the survey seemed to be looking forward to that extra hour of daylight in the afternoon.

A few businesses that have always operated with the sun or from daylight to dark will continue to do so and will adjust their times accordingly.

McCaulley-Hamlin Vote Set On Consolidation

An election has been called for the consolidation of the Hamlin and McCaulley School Districts for Saturday May 20, according to Jones County Judge Leon Thurman. The two-part election will be held in both the McCaulley and Hamlin School Districts with voters casting their ballots at the two schools.

To become effective the voters of both school districts must approve the consolidation.

Petitions for the election have been circulated in both districts and the McCaulley

Petition was presented to the Fisher County Judge and the Hamlin petition was presented to the Jones County Judge.

Both elections will be held on the same day with the polls open from 8 a.m. to 7 p.m.

A. B. Carlton will be election judge for the Hamlin election to be held at the high school building. He will be assisted by Mrs. Arlie Casle and Mrs. Joe League. Mrs. J. O. Murphree will be Absentee Election Clerk.

All qualified voters residing within the districts will be eligible to vote in their district's election.

Twice in the past the voters in the McCaulley School District have turned down proposals to consolidate their district. The first time was two years ago when they voted not to merge with the Hamlin District and more recently they turned down a bid to consolidate with Roby.

17th Annual Neinda Reunion Sunday To Mark 87th Year of Community

When residents and former residents gather for the annual Neinda reunion Sunday at 11 a.m. in the Community Center, the event will not only mark the 17th annual reunion but mark 87 years since the beginning of the Neinda community.

In the latter 1880's Neinda meant all of the area west of Skintout mountain and north of the shinnery. It was a church and school center for a large scope of territory, even including a portion of eastern Fisher County.

Today the community still thrives, with a gin, grocery store, an active Baptist Church, and the Community Center which is used for gatherings, elections and the annual reunion.

In 1900 a post office was established in Neinda with John O'Brien as the first and only postmaster. The office was discontinued when the rural route out of Hamlin was formed to serve the area. The first school was taught by Miss Maggie Willard. The first church building was a combination church and Masonic structure of two stories. Lumber was hauled from Abilene and Methodists and Baptists combined their efforts in the project.

When the school consolidated with the Hamlin Independent School District, the school building was given to the community. This structure was later sold when the Methodist Church merged with McCaulley, and the church building was purchased for the community center.

The first gin constructed in the community was built by W. M. Bristow and Fayet Smith. It was a one-stand affair bought from C. B. Smith of Abilene. The power was furnished by a thrasher engine. The gin was hand fed and had an old fashioned "tromp press." On the most favorable days, ten bales was the limit. Cotton was brought to the gin from as far away as Dickens County, 100 miles away.

Today, modern gin facilities serve the area. The all steel and electric operation can process eight bales per hour and averages from 3,000 to 4,000 bales per season. The Farmers Cooperative Gin of Neinda was organized in the early 1930's. H. W. Madden has been manager since 1943 with the exception of three seasons. F. W. Poe, who helped organize the cooperative, served as manager for the first 10 years. Other managers were John R. Brown Sr. and G. W. Drummond. Bill Scott has been bookkeeper since 1943.

The Neinda store which features general merchandise, was established by John R. Brown Sr. in September, 1927. On Jan. 2, it was purchased by J. E. (Rod) Brown, the present owner. He has lived in Neinda since 1914.

The most important activity in the community recently has been the organization of a water project to serve the area. The project has been approved by FHA and written notice of approval will be sent in July of this year. The Neinda committee with Bill Scott as chairman worked with the Hamlin BCD in securing the project. Other members of the committee are O. H. Weaver, John Scarborough, Stanley Jackson, R. P. Williams and Rod Brown, secretary-treasurer.

The business session begins at 11 a.m. and a lunch of barbecue and other meats will be served at noon. Plates will be $1.25 for adults and 50 cents for children. Ladies are bringing sweets. M. H. Castleberry is chairman.

Gas is as modern as the supersonic SST
it may one day propel.

It's still a little early to reserve a seat, but the Mach 3 transport is just around the corner. And when you're winging off to Calcutta at over 2000 mph, liquid natural gas may be the fuel. It's superior to kerosene type JP fuels in many ways, and reduces operating costs about 30%. One more reason why gas is today's energy source for tomorrow's energy needs. Right for the SST . . . safe, clean gas energy is right for your home. Lone Star Gas

Fairview News...

by Mrs. Elmer Joiner
This is real Fairview News this week and have learned several things, since arriving home Friday afternoon. Was a long old hard trip home from Temple, but just being home has been worth it, besides having to come for a light housekeeping outfit. Only have three more weeks to stay, thought last week it would be six weeks of treatments at this time, but will only be four, and since we have had one week that leaves just three more. We will be living at 817 S. 11th St. Temple, Texas 76501. Am still enjoying the nice cards and letters that I have received over the weeks and months, we are going to be lonesome in a little apartment, nothing to do but go to the hospital once a day, for a one and a half minute treatment duration.

Mr. and Mrs. Winson Gray attended the P.C.A. meeting at Stamford, Saturday, April 22, which is to be held Saturday April 29th. It seems they were the only ones present, but they didn't win the color T.V. They were one week too early.

Word comes from Mrs. Henry that they have a new living room carpet, besides other improvements, including some painting. If you see Mrs. Henry ask her if she wants to hang some drapes for you, but be sure and dodge!

It was always a joke to all of us that Mrs. Henry never went anywhere that she did not find some one that she had known or that knew some of her kinfolks. I told you last week that my room mate in the hospital was Mrs. Berryhill from Rochester. We were talking one day and she asked me if I knew any Henrys in my part of the country. We had a good laugh about how Mrs. Henry always found some one and there I had found some good friends of theirs away off down there in the hospital. It seems that the two families had lived near each other when their children were small and were good neighbors.

Reports from Mrs. Alma Holmes is that she is about the same and fairly well reconciled to living in the Valley View Nursing home in Anson. She loves cards, so send her some, it will help her pass the time away.

Mr. and Mrs. George Wainwright moved to Hamlin, Friday, after living in the same house since they were married, out on the farm. They sold their farm house and five acres of land, keeping the farming land. They purchased the home of the late Mrs. Ed Bailey, in Hamlin, where they will be living.

Mr. and Mrs. Isiah Holmes, Abernathy, were Friday afternoon visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rosenbaum.

The Rosenbaums have had their pasture root plowed, the trees all torn down, making it look quite different out that way.

Mr. and Mrs. Dave (Sport) Whitaker, Snyder, were Sunday afternoon visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Ford.

We were sorry to learn that Mr. J. D. Gray, Anson, who was the father of Mrs. Clifford Eoff passed away, and was to be buried Sunday. Have never met the new Mrs. Eoff, but our sympathy goes to her and her family in their time of sorrow.

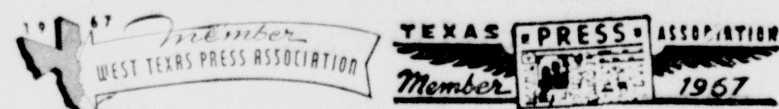

Will try to send you a little note from down Temple way next two weeks, to let you know how we like city living.

SAME OLD STORY!

A boy and girl... he carries her books to school... they share stories and laughter... yes, it's the same old story, but it's all new to them. Even though we have seen it many times before, we receive joy in seeing their joy.

From the beginning of man's time on earth, God has revealed himself to man, and man has told others about God, and how much God has done for man. Through centuries the story has not changed, but there are many who have not heard the story. Invite someone to church this Sunday. It may be their first opportunity to hear of God's great love.

"For God so loved the world that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life."

John 3:16

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

Can You Match These Mothers and Daughters?*

Mother-daughter and father-son combinations aren't unusual at Southwestern Bell.

There are many reasons for this happy state of affairs. For one thing, ours is a good company to work for. For another, we offer a real opportunity for serving the public, an opportunity that calls for a true "spirit of service." We're pleased and proud so many of our Texas employees suggest a telephone career to their children. By doing so, they help insure the business will be in good hands for many years to come. We think this is a good thing for Southwestern Bell and for our customers.

Plans are complete for the 33rd Annual Stockholders meeting of the Rolling Plains PCA, according to J. L. Hill Jr., general manager. The meeting will begin with registration at the High School Auditorium in Stamford at 11 a.m., with lunch being served from 11:30 to 12:45. Business session starts at 1 p.m. at which time reports from the Board of Directors and the Management will be heard.

The term of one Director, Lasater Hensley of Guthrie, expires with this meeting. Mr. Hensley was re-nominated, along with Stuart Dixon of Matador, to stand for election to this vacancy on the Board.

Postal Savings to Cease Earning Interest Today, Postmaster Warns

"United States Postal Savings Certificates which are on deposit at post offices will cease earning interest for depositor's on April 27, 1967," Postmaster Perry Sparks said today.

Nationwide, the Post Office Department is holding more than $90 million in the now obsolete program which was discontinued by the Congress on March 28, 1966.

As of April 27, a year ago, Postal Savings were discontinued, and no deposits were accepted by the Post Office Department.

Certificates whose anniversary dates have been reached since last April 26 have earned their final interest payment, Postmaster Sparks said.

On June 30, he said, all remaining funds in the program will be turned over to the Treasury Department to be held in a trust fund until liquidated. There they will remain available for payment without time limitation whenever proper claims are received.

Postmaster Sparks urged that all Postal Savings depositors close out their accounts and invest their funds into United States Savings Bonds or the new Freedom Shares, which on May 1, will pay 4.74% interest.

Holders of Postal Savings certificates can arrange to redeem them simply by applying at the post office where the certificates were issued. The postmaster there, he said, will provide guidance and necessary forms to assist in cashing certificates. All transactions can be handled by mail, and certificates issued to persons now deceased can be cashed by legal heirs in accordance with State laws governing such distributions. Again, the postmaster at the issuance post office will render authorized assistance.

STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights by Vern Sanford TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN: Legislature showed signs of quick response to the request by Gov. John Connally to postpone writing a tax bill until next year and to adopt a state governmental budget for only half the fiscal biennium.

Both House and Senate budget-writing committees will scrap their biennial appropriations measures and have one-year bills ready for action this week.

In an unusual night speech to a joint session of the House and Senate, Connally pledged to call a special session next year to pass a 1969 appropriations bill and consider necessary new taxes. Overall purpose was to break legislative logjams on major legislation.

State financial picture appears to be this: Under the one-year budget plan, about $137,000,000 in additional spending can be done in the year starting next September 1 out of the general revenue fund. Because in past years the estimates of Comptroller Robert S. Calvert have been conservative, there generally is a surplus left at the end of each year. Connally thinks a surplus of $50-60,000,000 might be in sight a year from now. Thus the size of the tax bill to be passed could be that much less than it would have to be if it were passed now.

This $50,000,000 or so would not actually be "saving", since Connally expects the Legislature to spend the same amount on two one-year budgets as on one two-year budget. However, the Governor figures that if business growth continues to gain, revenues from present taxes will bring in more than had been expected, and thus make it possible to get by with a smaller tax increase.

LI. Gov. Preston Smith, after initial doubts on wisdom of the procedure, urged the Senate Finance Committee to go along. Smith cautioned the legislators not to take the new financial procedure as an invitation to spend more freely and to clear up any legal questions at an early date. financial salvation does not contend that no new taxes are necessary, viewed Connally's proposal as "at least partial recognition that our financial salvation does not necessarily and exclusively lie in passing a big tax bill at this time."

Community Centers Bill by Rep. Billy H. Williamson of Tyler to make more cities in Texas eligible for grants-in-aid for community mental health centers has passed both House and Senate.

State now may make such grants-in-aid to cities of 100,000 or more population. This bill would lower that minimum to 75,000. It also would allow grants-in-aid to a center serving less than 75,000 population, if the state commissioner of mental health and mental retardation declares it eligible.

Education Measures House of Representatives passed two measures of the education package sponsored by Rep. Alonzo Jamison of Denton.

One would allow some college-educated persons who did not take all the required education courses in college to qualify as teachers.

Other would allow persons already knowledgeable in American and Texas history and government to take advance standing exams, and if they make an A or B, receive that grade without having to take the course.

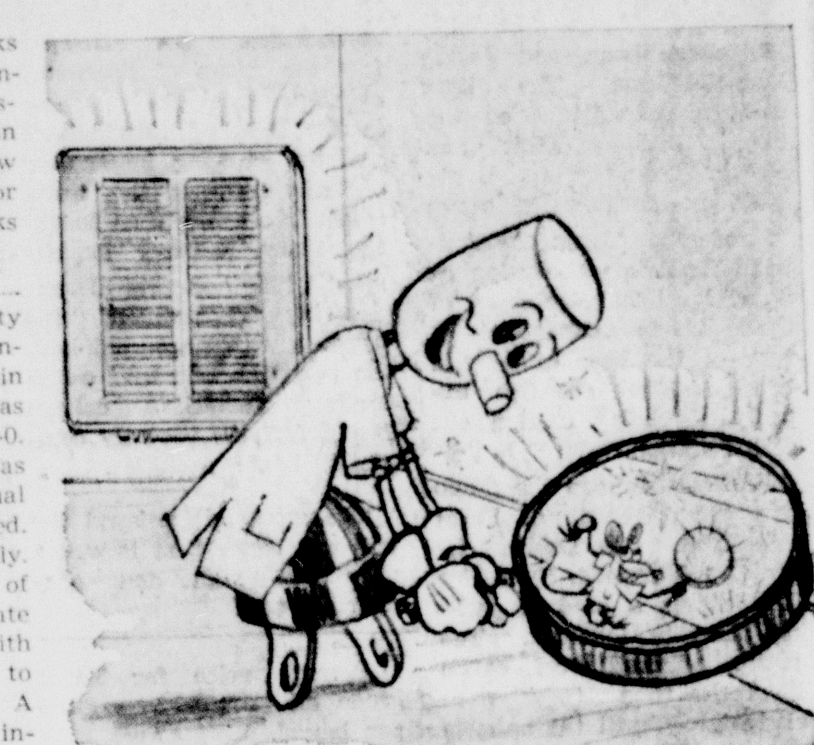

It also would exempt some out-of-state graduate students from having to go back and take undergraduate history and government courses.

A measure acceptable to both the Texas Motor Transportation Association and the Texas Joint Railway Labor Board now is awaiting action before the Texas A&M University. The Thursday night session was concluded with a discussion on "Outlook for Beef Cattle Industry in the next Seven Years," by Mr. John McHaney, Extension Economist with The Texas A&M University.

Friday afternoon the group was given a tour of Farm Pac Kitchens in Lubbock by Mr. David Connell. Farm Pac Kitchens is a modern packing plant in Lubbock. The group followed beef cattle from the time they were slaughtered until the animals were completely processed. Saturday morning the group toured the facilities of the School of Agriculture at Texas Technological College. The tour was conducted by Dr. Wayland Bennett, Associate Dean of Agriculture. Dr. Bennett told the group of the many openings that are available in the field of agriculture and the growing importance of agriculture in the world today. The group then toured the dairy industry department, the agricultural engineering department, the veterinary science building, the meat lab, the beef cattle feeding facilities, college farms, and the recently completed horse facilities.

The group all enjoyed the trip and agree that it was a very worth while and educational trip.
